John Cox, Susan Smith & her children & Jules Clarke with many others, & more especially Abl Barker were then ad-ded to my list of friends known & loved.
The Qu meeting was a favoring time — friends in united unity & something of the sharp grating again heard within our borders.
We returned (as we came) by the Rail Car & ice boat, on 4th day morng & pursued our family visit with quiet delight during the remainder of the week. Hope yesterday was a favored day. Something like the closing of the conversion at the North meeting in the morning — a very fear-ful time — but I trust the power of the Lord accompanied the word — Dined at Hol Webster's — Written in the aft. Tea at S. A. Robinson's where the opening of a little budget of care & tribulation to my kind friend & adviser E. P. B., was greatly to my relief. The meeting at Arch St. was very large — not very long & quite silent — I felt (I hope not naughtily) pray that I might be permitted to keep silence on the occasion — & truly there was no word from me to speak — To day we have been again quietly pursuing our visits.
Friends seem to have been well satisfied with the silent meeting — My mind, through adorable mercy is clothed with much peaceful quiet to night — Can I be too thankful? Yet I have no later accts from England than 17th 9m many packets being due — & I am far from being out of the mill in this city — a hot & pretty determined opposition having manifested itself in some — It does not make me at all nervous or anxious which I can only ascribe only to the unmerited goodness & loving kindness of the Lord. We are now nearly thro' through the visits in the Northern Dist. lot.

4th day Eve. 3mo 7

Two remarkably low days of family visiting have fallen to my lot — & this morning was from some particular causes one of peculiar conflict — This was wonderfully relieved by an unexpected interview with a friend, which put broke the web in which the enemy had contrived to involve my poor mind. Alleged tranquillity is again my portion this evening — & I have received letters from home which on the whole must be considered comfortable. The Lord be praised!

6th day aft.

full day of visiting yesterday — tea at the Whitalls — 6 visits this morning — I hope to conclude the district this morning evening My business this aft. is great — but I am not without my sure reward. O that the Lord

JOURNAL OF J. J. GURNEY 1837 - 1840