

21st May, A cloudy morning S. Wind went to Town, engag'd writing Letters to England & Fane & Diana, the former clear'd to day for Liverpool, a heavy Shower at 2 O'clock, and another at five, Dined at Mr. Pringles with Mess^{rs} Dan^l & Sam^l Hughes and Sam^l J^r, return'd Home at 7 O'clock, wrote Letters untill twelve.

22nd A very fine morning, warm & pleasant, went to Town & put my Letters in Fane & Diana's bags for J. Hodgsons Assignees, my Father, Sister & Brother James, Mr. Rotton
& W^m Neville, Diana clear'd at 12 O'clock the Fane sail'd past the Fort precisely at 2 O'clock with a light S.W. breeze — Return'd Home to Dinner —

23rd A very warm day, went to Town & return'd to Dine at Mr. S. Smith's with Mrs J. — and a large party, return'd Home in the Gig at 7 O'clock Rebecca Bowly in company, found all well, a very fine evening —

24th A very fine morning Wind S., went to Town & return'd to Dinner, the evening cool, Wind North,

25th A very fine Day & warm, went to Town & Dined in company with Mr. Wigman at Mr. Pleasants, left Town at 5 O'clock accompanied by Mr. Evans, went thro' Springfield to see it on our way to Clifton, Mr. E. Drank Tea & return'd to Town, a very fine evening —