expressing a fatherly visit to the vast Mens House in the afn. Good meeting there. Evening at E. Robbins's with E. Coffin & Wife. 4th day To Germantown (Abington Qu. school meeting) - His paper off pretty well. dined at Saml Morris's.
Spent the afn at Deb. Logan's old mansion - built by Jas L. Wm Penn's secy.
Public meeting in the evening at Germantown; much crowded. Disturbed by a female Hicksite minister. 5th day, Roxbro Qu. meeting larger than expected - I was much engaged in the ~~m~~ meeting for worship - On the subsequent meeting, leave to open the shutters (Hicksite men & women in a closing office) was refused - & afterwards E. Carpenter passed a tide of rebuke upon me respg the evening meeting - so that a rough ~~last~~ humbling dose was permitted.
I think the first instance of the actual obstruction of a religious service which has ever occurred to me. I have desired that in the humiliation of self it might operate beneficially. - Large wedding party at John Cresson's in the evening.
Sixth day. ~~Went to~~ Interesting call in E. Pa & breakfast at the Waters - Visited to the Prest. & Directors of the Bank of United States - inspection of the mint; dined at H. Pleasants's with N. Dunn, & I. Vaughan - Two meetings at the Meyamensing friends in the afn - Lei the evening the farewell meeting of young people &c very large & very solemn - a relieving - "We preach not ourselves but Xt Jesus the Lord & ourselves your servants for Jesus's sake" - The separation between Hicksism & Quakerism plainly set forth - This morning, breakfast with I. Vaughan at Philosophical rooms - met Du Ponceau, the Prest. of the Soty, Lawyer & linguist of rare attainments - Since many calls - & now I am once more at this peaceful country residence - in a good degree of peace & comfort - bless the Lord O my soul!
5mo 11. First day Eve. Moses Palmer's near Concord First day the 13th well spent in Jersey a small but satisfactory meeting at Westfield in the morning - dined at Nathl Robeis - a large
