Kept I hardly knew how to remount the disagreeable of the absence of a friend. Evening spent very peacefully at Sam.l Jones's beautiful residence with Israel W. Morris & Elk.: Lodged at Greenhill farm & had a free rel.: sitting with all the Morris family the next morning. Israel M. Morris undertook me for our present round. Very interesting & very exercising it has been. The weather, country, birds, fruit trees, flowers &c. my great repeated pleasure but the rel. engagements very weighty. 7th day Darby & Springfield dined at Jos. & Hannah Rhoades's. Lodged at Jos. Maples. The feeling of peilancy & resistance at the long meeting at Springfield was evident enough both to Israel & myself. But I endeavoured to keep close to the gift & that letting in the fear of man. 1st day Chester & Middleton. Dined at Jesse J. Mavis's. Lodged at Israel Hoskins. very pleasantly. The better meeting large & much favoured. 6th day. & Downington. School meeting afterwards 2.d. dined at Geo. Cathrall's. deep humbling. excellent public meeting in the afn. lodged at Eli Roberts's.

6th day. 2.d. meeting. was largely attended a close searching time. Friends received me well & cordially. Long drive with Eli to Paxal Morris's where we lodged. Miserable in the night. stiff joints! & sadly depressed & nervous. 7th day morn.g, flying meeting at West Chester an appeal to Dined at Geo. Brinton's. ride of 18 miles, & Wilmington. that pleasant spot. where we were most kindly entertained by Saml & Mary Ann Hillis. Yesterday, was a memorable Sabbath there. The morning meeting in Friends small house crowded. dined at John Bullock's school. fixed afn meeting. in the evening a large public one in the capital meeting house now occupied by the Hicksites. it was well attended by them & others & the Truth arose into much predominance. The day ended in sweet peace & was succeeded by a good night. To day. has not been one of work; but of much thought. much rest. & some suffering. The weather delightful. The country about Concord very sweet. A drive of 10 miles to Concord in time for the 2.d. Sol.t meeting. Elizabeth the. & same others of the same water. a hard feeling. gradually surmounted by something better. Mary Scott & Rebecca Hutton ministered well & said a little. Sarah afterwards deeply affected by a woman friend Rebecca - alluding to my wants as in the parable of want of life in the summer
