

6th July - A very Hot Day, the Thermometer in Town at 90 - went to Town & returned to Dinner - got in all my Cots & made Hay Stack in Meadow, at six O'clock had a trifling Storm of Wind & Rain which scarcely laid the Dust.
7th Sunday, An exceedingly Hot day, took Mrs. J. & children to Finsbury to Dinner, no company there, spent a very pleasant day, and all returned Home accompanied by Mary Towson, we made a snug Load for a Gig, being six in number & Bill behind, got safe Home & all well.

8th July - An extreme Hot day & no appearance of Rain, which is a distressing thing, the Country being burnt up, went to Town & returned to Dinner, Thermometer 92.

9th The Hot Weather continues or rather increases, Thermometer being 95 & a very clear Atmosphere, went to Town & returned to Dinner, Mrs. J. went to Town in Mr. B.'s Carriage, and brought Home with her Mr. Start & Child, sent Potatoes to Market, sold for $1.25 of bush, the Evening, excessive Hot.
