my part it has been, from nervousness & felt oppression, an ordeal of suffering. Well Jos. Jr., thou hast part of the Lord's mantle said Mary Beede after meeting — & truly I felt I had such an onerous lot — But all is well & the Lord has again graciously shown himself to be on my side. I was much pleased with the honest boldness of the interesting Lindley Hoag. My course has been pretty fair since my last entry. A good meeting after all at Newbury Pat & an pleasable quarters at Jos. Brown's. First day, lively meetings at W. Newbury, Amesbury, & Seabrook. Second day long drive & poor little meeting at Epping but some precious intercourse afterwards with the little remnant of Friends. 3d. Weeks & Dover mos. meeting large & good — & excellent public meeting in the eve. Pleasant homish quarters at John & Mary Brown's — the parents of my interesting young friends at Philad. Yesty. School 2 meetings — a good time but a good long day. Poor Henry Hustdale obliged to leave me in consequence of a very alarming account of his married daughter. — I have been nervous & restless at night — but substantially well & in peace, Blessed be the Lord!

Portland 1st day after Jos. 4th.

Here I am at my kind friend's the widow Hobbs Cobbett after another interesting pilgrimage — during the greater part of which Moses H. Beede has been my acceptable companion. On the evening of the last entry good quarterly public meeting at Berwick village — 6th day meeting with Friends at Dover — pretty good day among Friends letter writing &c. Crowded public meeting in the Exp Congregational house. Not what was in the Cap &c. 7th day left Dr. Browne for our field, we travelled nearly 30 miles & held meetings at New Durham & Rochester or Meader's brough. Dined on the mountains at Isa. Conways — & lodged at Hyatt Gentem's. Then came 1st day — long drive to Pittsfield — good meeting — dined at Isa. Millins — another drive to Gilmanton — 2 good public meetings there. 2d day. to Wolfeboro Lindley Hoag's — Had his arts very agreeable & interesting in humble life — 6th. lively ministers — public meeting in the afternoon to our relief — lodged at Joseph & Hart Varney's from Dover folks. 3d Day Drove along Winnipesaukee Lakes to Sandwich Cyrus Beede's — was long meeting at Sandwich in the morning — Moll S. in the afternoon. Fine mountain scenery. I was constrained to resign my expectation to the White Mts., but we
