Vassalboro 9mo 14th 1838

I find 12 days have slipped away since my last entry - much has taken place in the interim - I may gratefully acknowledge that the meetings at Falmouth Windham Monmouth Augusta &c &c have been good ones & some much favored - Falmouth (dined sleepfully at Caleb Jones's) Windham - lodged at Nathan Pope's - a pleasant temporary home - Select Qu. meeting there - Gorham - Quarterly meeting at Windham very large & good - Windham (Fr.) - Raymond 15 miles back - a Dorcas Mitchell a fearless friend interested me much. Young people's meeting in the eve at Nathan Pope's - Parnell 7th day. Pat Pope's - Solitary wander & female praying in the woods. First day - Durham - large meeting with Friends & others - Elisha Tuttle's - Brunswick sat of the Maine Univ. aftn - very good meeting - Young people's meeting in the eve at Thos Jones's. Sixth day. Litchfield - after long journey - lodged at Noah Davis's - 7th day. Winthrop & Augusta in the evening - a lovely valley of Maine. 4th Select Qu. meeting here - 10 letters which deeply occupied the aftn - altho' whole satisfactory - Yesterday passed with varied - Qu. meeting - meeting very satisfactory - good meeting - Mr Coventry preached. I hope with purity.

& friends seemed cordial. In the evening however I felt peculiarly low & complicated - my tide of feelings had a good deal overwhelmed me & the future seemed dark - Henry Hinsdale's journey me again was however a great comfort - & to day matters are much brighter with me. A very interesting parting in the morning from my faithful friends John & Mary Brown - & small but interesting meeting at Sidney - dined at the widow Purrington's - recrossed the beautiful Kennebec in time for our last sorrowing meeting here this aftn - Since then a remarkable offering at a friend's house with some elderly friends & a young man named Franklin Shaw the Preceptor of the academy here. Through infinite mercy the anointing has flowed in a lively pure stream to day: & I have enjoyed much peace. To Him be all the praise... I find I am dubbed LL.D. by the fellows of Brown Univ. Providence!

Anson 9mo 22d 1838

Here I am with my beloved brother in gospel bonds Henry Hinsdale, after our first day's journey towards Quebec - from Augusta 82 miles. My mind is tranquil though I have been suffering somewhat from the peculiar irritability of nerves connected with some religious

JOURNAL OF J. J. GURNEY 1837 - 1840