conflict to which I am liable — which I take to be a thorn in the flesh — & it may be a messenger of Satan — to buffet me — The Lord graciously overrule these secret sufferings for my humiliation & sanctification — & for the furtherance of his own work! I may gratefully acknowledge that throughout the week hoped since the last entry, the free ministry has, to my own apprehension enlarged to flow freely — & our round of meetings & visits (with James Dennis & my own cos. & Hases) has been remarkably satisfactory — forming a good crown, I believe, to the visit to New England. 1st 7th day Outlet — dined at Abiah Newell's — Neck a small meeting in the afn. & a few comfortable resting hours at Isaac Jones's, on the borders of the beautiful 12 mile Pond — called by me Lake Genesaret. First day to Albion — Hesperport visit to the dear, noble hearted, Christian John Warren — good meeting — the Resurrection; & in the afn. one at Unity — went forward to Robt. Hanson's two at towards Brooks, where on 2d day we held a good mo. meeting — & a public meeting in the early evening, after dining at Jos. Robbins's. 3d day, China mo. meeting — public meeting in the New House at S. China, & lodged at Eli & Sybil Jones's — much pleased with the simple hearted friends there & elsewhere. 4th day Vassalboro' mo. meeting at Outlet — even several visits to the sick in the afn. dined at Dan'l Talbot's — letter writing. ~~5th day~~ Good day, but sleeplessness nearly kept except for a short time & then miserably ill dreams — so that I was much tried — but I felt supported & fundamentally quiet — The next day (6th) was a remarkable one. Sidney mo. meeting at Fairfield in the morning 9th, & as we passed thro' Waterville a beautiful little town on the Kennebeck, the seat of a College, we left James D. & Caleb Nicholls to give notice for a public meeting in the evg. The mid meeting was remarkable, my elderly fellow worker Benj. Fry developing precisely the exercise which had opened my own mind — & out of the mouth of two witnesses the word of truth was established. After a hasty meal at Saml. Taylor Jr's (a minister) we returned to Waterville in time to work tea with Everard Patterson Pres't of the College before meeting which was attended by the people & many others & was a favoured occasion "Yea that believest hath the witness in himself." Sixth day — full minded. Mo. meeting at Winthrop at Hallowell new meeting ho — a marriage afterwards — Public meeting at 4 o'cl. at Augusta
