I had anticipated some anxiety & distress, lest I should have been using in an thing now to visit Upper Canada - but I cannot deny that my dear Lord & our Master has been specially with me at Penn - so that I may humbly trust I may for an very way rejoicing - placing my confidence in Him who doth not cast away his poor children, who in the midst of great weakness, humbly desire & endeavour to serve him.

Hudson 10mo/23. 1838

His gracious favour has continued to accompany & protect me: we arrived safely at Whitehall & thence proceeded 14 miles (cars) to Granville & to Aaron Lapham's Esq. a pleasant community of friends & there we held in the village, a good evening meeting. 6th day very wet & stormy - journey to Queensbury where in the afternoon notwithstanding the unbleakness of the weather & the very scattered locations of the friends we were favoured with a large & capital meeting - in one in which Christ's wisdom was justified of her children, poor & weak Mary Hayte. The same evening a good public meeting in the village of Glenfalls. 7th day - Journey thro' Saratoga towards Troy. Deeply interested in visiting the dying chamber & grave of dear Charles Jackson: the springs of sparkling water excellent - A flap or two did me good. In the eve I left the rail road & my companions (who went forward to Troy to prepare for a Sabbath Evg meeting there) & drew myself in the twilight of the keeper of a tavern left the way side who sent me forward, in the dark, to Dr Carey's of Halfmoon. I felt wholly insulated female who cared for me on either side the water.

New York 10mo 25th 1838

Happy reception at Dr Carey's - & good meeting there with Friends & others (including Hicksites & Deists) the next morning. Truth seemed to triumph - friends very cordial. Part of the Carey family afterwards kindly conveyed me to Troy where I found H H in distress. We had a large & excellent meeting in the Methodist House that evening.

The next morning we entered the boat in peace - but I was not satisfied without stopping at Hudson, which led to some add'l exercise of faith & patience. H. H went forward to New York - Anderson Keese remaining with me. I here had the delight of reading my home letters a little of which met me at Troy - & still greater comfort had I in their reperusal. The next morning - Most thankful am I for such good news of my darling children & all my family.