our companion drove us better over muddy roads yesty - & held a small but flowing public meeting in the evg - Many are my exercises - yet a few at times my comforts - but "in the multitude of my thoughts within me, thy comforts delight my soul". Blessed be thy glorious name O Lord!

We reached our kind friend Elisha Cox's on 6th day morng in time for breakfast before going to the Qu. meeting at Deer Creek. There I met Wm Kennard & his companion & we were favoured with a memorable time both in the meeting for worship & that for discipline - though the house is so small there. After meeting we found a peaceful retreat at Dr Wallaces & on 7th day the Dr accompanied John Scott & me (all on horseback) about 20 miles to Fawn Pen^a where we dined at Isaiah Lukens.
The meeting house was refused us by the Hicksites but we had a reviving comfortg meeting in a house hardly (and Relatg) & many of their people attended - we rode back 10 miles to David Hall Cox's - a Hicksite by whom we were kindly entertained - & left there on 1st day morng after a good religious opp^y for our morng meeting at Deer Creek. It was largely attended - & a very precious meeting - the holy oil flowed - & my arment was relieved & comforted. We had attempted to Hopewell across the Blue Ridge - Rode on horseback 35 miles - to Jno Griffith's at Sandown. 1st day public meeting Friends alone - many Hicksites - at Hopewell - at Adams - dined at Mellen Schofield's - Evg meeting at Whitehall - well meeting there - The Pupils - large company young people & others at Jno Griffith's at night. Second day. Meeting with Friends & a few others at Hopewell - searching time - appr. at Ridge with the Hicksite house - good meeting - Christ exalted. dined at Wm H Brown's. Evg. large & highly satisfactory meeting - fit for conclusion at Winchester. The slave-merchandise here most abominable - but there is an open door for the gospel. - Previous leave - taking evg with the Friends. Off early in 3d day by Rail road & arrived at Baltimore in the early evg 110 miles. Pleasant evg there with friends. 4th day - By rail road to Cockeysville - there met by zealous, cheerful, Jno Scott who conveyed us to Sunpowder a fair, warm, Indian-summer day - week day meeting in a school house in the morning - many not Friends present. Large meeting appr in Methodist house - both lively times - Doctrine flowed. Breakfast at dear old Isaac Scotts - Dof & lodged at Thos & E, Jno & R. Scotts - Very pleasant from that interesting family afte-
