Duchess like Appeal - 7th. Read the Slavery Pamph. with him & received his full sanction for the proceeding - but he afterwards kindly & wisely obliterated my name. dined at Rud, food Wm Carpenter's. 1st day 3mo/31. Good flowing meeting - aft at Sam Barlows 2d. day 4mo. ~~Tuesday~~ Visited Chas & Esther Field - very pleasant to Newgh. to W. Mott's where I again met the Members. 3d. day. Lw. meeting for Suffrs & select meeting - 4th. Mo. meeting - adjourned in the afternoon, overdone, but in peace, to Flushing. 5th. Long ride of 16-18 miles to Southampton. 6th. & 7th. quiet rides, letter writing &c. H. Hustler joined us in the evg. First day 4/7th. Call on the Wm H Leggetts - very plain speaking. Favoured farewel meeting - sweet ending in peace at the Friends ~~where~~ pleasing son Geo had now joined them - to New York with Joshua & H & H in the afn. Pleasant, animated visits, to the Motts, Hawkhurst - E Willis - El Marshall - & H. H's where I lodged - & after a pour night came to Burlington yesterday: dined with dearest Stephen Grellet & family - spent the evening here with Dr Wistar & Mr Fox - satisfactorily - but I was not very well - & my night has been again disturbed. Better health & better hopes attend me this morning. & a humble trust that so far, all is right. Bless the Lord, O for ever bless the Lord, my poor soul!

Fifth day Eve

Third & fourth day very pleasant & reviving. riding about the Country - very pleasant visit from Mr Baker & Rd Jones. ~~(Sixth day) Yesterday~~ & a day spent very agreably at Oxmead, with Colored John Cox (Sixth day). Yesterday - a very good meeting - dined at the Allisons - arrival of Anna Jenkins Sarah Tobey & Sam Bogue to our great comfort - remarkable religious opportunities last evening & this morning, for our help, & refreshment, & the strengthening of our faith.

Philadelphia 6th day Eve. 4/12.

Here I am at my American home having arrived by steam boat from Burlington this afn - after a pleasant voyage with a choice company of friends. I feel much peace & quietness in resuming this old station - as has been the case on each successive arrival here - perhaps