scenery - a second public meeting in the evening - small but very solemn. - The To day (the 3d) good meeting at Westmorland - formerly composing of Friends - & now I am at Rome for a public meeting in the Methodist House.
The Lord be graciously with me in it; &

Rome 7mo. 5. 1839.

The public meeting here last 4th day was small but otherwise satisfactory - On 5th day - (Independence day very bustling) meeting with Friends & others at Western - I spent the remainder of the day & lodged at Jacobus Hill's - To day rather a remarkably favoured meeting at Lee.
Thus 2 meetings out of 5 have been visited in Le Roy quarter - & very freedom has been our ~~[illegible]~~ with Friends, especially J. H. & Henry & Clara Dopp who have been conveying us about in their open wagon. - I am pretty well in health & strength I have hoped this some hours of weakness & uneasiness - On the whole I feel peace in quietly pursuing my journey - which we hope to do to morrow to Shaneateles

Aaron Owen's near Hector Tompkins Co. N. Y. 7mo. 13. 1839

Weary in body - not free from complaint low in mind - but quiet - perplexed but not in despair. persecuted but not forsaken, - I remain very poorly this evening with no small & natural cloud of doubt & anxious question whether I shall live or die. I feel as if I could not go on much longer - & many things seem to be "against me" On the opposite hand I have been favoured with as remarkable a train of meetings as ever fell to my lot - & among "appropriate" family settings as my faithful friend & elder Jos. Talbott has fully testified - Reached Shaneateles on 7th day - 2 meetings there on 1st day - 2d day ride by the side of the lake - return by rail road to Syracuse - good public meeting - 3d to Auburn by rail road - memorable time with 650 prisoners - public meeting in the evg. 4th day Sepo south - 5th Sepo North. 6th Sepos and another, all remarkable times - the last especially so, an old elder acknowledging that he
