came in bitter the morning with cars with dear H Hindale & Kellerhellet - Long conversation on 4th day after with J. Battle - O the lowering that has been allowed me - But I believe I have peace at bottom:

Night. Since writing the above confused description, I have been favoured with two memorable religious offs: at Hugh Balderston's, South & S Mellaston, & retire to rest with a relieved mind. I taped by the great Bolton meeting Hs. where they are holding continued meetings, & hear all accounts converting many sinners. Truly the Lord works through a variety of human instrumentality. Who art thou who judgest another?

Phil: 7th day. 11 mo 9. 1837 Journalizing is quite a difficulty. I am so much behind hand

7th day 26th. Select F. M. I took my barrow.
Certificate ordered after much expression of unity. - held again in the afternoon.
1st day - Good meeting St. Grellet Midfell & Radcliffe in the morning - He work devolved on me in the afternoon. baptism with of the Holy Ghost - in extent & deep unity with Stephen - He had his first conference at Dr Nevins - I set South Kirk large & satisfactory. Second day to fifth inclusive, Yearly meeting a really good time. 4th day morning Certificate taped in the select meeting with full unity: proceeding after, visit to women's meeting - the meeting for worship in 4th day a very open time - the Xn Doctrine of the office fully developed meeting interspersed with good visits to friends & on the whole I had ample cause for believing that I had again been favoured to find my right place - Sat South & 7th days taped specially throughout Dr Tyson's - closely occupied in writing my address to the Hicksites: 1st day a good day I hope - solemn farewell in morning meeting. Public meeting in the evening - small by steps of scattered but deeply solemn. remarkable time afterwards at Sos. King's with Rs.

Jas Carey &c: 2nd day of Dr Hendy's printed address. Repos Jail - Slater's very affecting - Meeting for Sufferers address taped well - late in correcting it with Dr Thomas.

JOURNAL OF J. J. GURNEY 1837-1840