as was, as usual, my fast friend E.P.R.
Aft. I went to Israel Morris's on 3d day - returned 4th. Dear Mr Evans came to tell me in the evening &c - I was tired & headachy & hardly knew how to cope with the large circle of heart-taking friends who came in the evening to - but we were favoured with a good solemn opportunity. A Barber after myself, in prayer. 5th day with B Wistar to Trenton - where met Susan R Smith & Dillwyn. We had a very good day. Satisfactory visit to the State Prison, on the Separate plan - 2 meetings there - afterwards a solid public meeting. 6th day lodged at S. Paxson's - afterwards breakfasted 6th day at Rotherbridge's in the Country. Remarkable offg there with Susan Smith, Dillwyn, B Wistar & David Clark - when Dr Long with me was spoken of - much peace followed to my own mind - but I must stand prepared for entire disappointment.
May I commit all to the Lord!
Arrived here in the aftn. on 6th day here with friends. On 6th day Evg. meeting for Suffrs, in which (quandoque consentientibus, duo dip.) my Letter to Michigan was well taken. a great relief. quite taffy the next morning I sleared with a visit to the Camilla. I cannot be too thankful for feeling well & quiet. Underlie for me O Lord in body, soul, & for my precious children so dear to me in the best life - & may we, in due season meet in the fulness of that peace which passeth all understanding!

Third day morn.

No certainty yet about Dillwyn - but I have another young man in view in case of need. Long conversation with Dr & Mary Cook last evening - Alas for the disjointings & dissatisfactions in our poor society! but the Lord is over all - I feel quiet - not high toned; but yet humbly trusting.
Let my gracious Redeemer still yet order all my affairs to his praise.

Sixth ~~Fifth~~ day aft.

at Sea on board the Camilla 11/22: 39

Last third day arrived my beloved friend I Paul from Phila - also Rachel Smith from Providence & Dillwyn from Burlington with his uncle's decision for him, not to go.
