& his Wm Colebrooke & visit to Rt Holberton the Friars Sergeant — his infant school, daily meet Dist. & Lafelat — Went to the Legislature — dined at Mall. & Grace Gilbert's at Gilberts in the Country. He a planter & evangelical clergyman Good meeting in his church in the evening.
6th day to Davis Hill Lt Wm Colebrooke's pleasant visit — Good meeting in his saloon in the Cof. donning family. — very family ra ordinary. Returned 7th day to Gilberts — 1st Day. Parham meets in Mall. House — Cof very large & promiscuous meeting in the Meth Chapel here. 'Use not your liberty for an occasion to the flesh Lev'. very family supt. 2d day. to Gilberts evening after tarrying with Consumptive & visiting Miss School.
3d day Rest, writing & nursing Nice. Excellent meeting in his church in the morning — 4th day to Davis Hill — dined Nice — Bible Lect at English harbor in the eve. 5th day Delightful drive with Sir Wm C & the ladies to visit U. Moravian School at Gracehill; & the free settlements of Liberta & Angusta — a pleasant time. Previous & solemn meeting in the saloon in the eve. Officers, soldiers, R C Clergy here. 6th. Took an leave of the Colebrooks returned to "St. John's" — Drove with Holberton to his Country schools & to the Lazaretto of Lepers. Excellent meeting in his school room in the evening. To day Sir Jordan drove me to breakfast at Bertie & Jarvis's beautiful estate — Visit & surveyed with James Howell — his methodist reformer — then to Dr Daniel the President — & another attorney — long interview with the Governor. This Eve. spent with the Jordans & Wm Walker — ending with a good family sitting. Much friendship has been about me — during my visit to this Island — but I am helped on from day to day & feel at rest.

Thursday Mar 26. 1840

On First Day morning being still unwell I consulted Dr Musgrave — & am still under his close & kind care, though much better.
We have held our meetings in private that morning — & in the evening, though under rather trying circumstances bodily, held a very large & satisfactory meeting in the Methodist House Ps. 35 — Some practical advice given at the close of the meeting — on marriage — integrity in word & deed — & on the consistency of a good education with field labour — The next morning Dr M. still found of the original complaint at work — & ordered entire rest — & then but allowed living in low diet at Archd Davis's: There we met Dr Cox calling the Rector of the town in Maryland a person now in affliction, who gave an excellent