Burlington. Dined & lodged comfortably at West Hill. Spent the evening with Stephen Grellet & 5th Started early this morning for Philadelphia ~~from West Hill~~ & attended the quiet solemn week-day meeting at Arch St. in which I had to speak of the immortality of the soul, of the happiness of dear departed ones, & of the necessity we had to prepare our rational spirits for eternity. Prayer closed the meeting. Quietness & fair health my portion, His mercy, our returning Father.

Seventh day morning. The glass rising a little in matters both of health & spirits after a few days or two, & some suffering from an inflamed eye. This has abated partly in sympathy with the deeply afflicted Wistar family - to whom as well as to Moses Brown & his children I have paid visits of true condolence. The unexpected death of his brother's wife (S. Lee's daughter) is much to be felt by all who knew her.

West Hill 7mo. 22. 1840

I have to record many mercies since I last wrote. The time spent in Philad. has on the whole been very satisfactory - On First Day 12th. Orange Street in the morning large meeting - full & faithful preaching fell to my lot, W. & E., being present. Truth was evidently in good dominion.

Dined at dear old Ellis Yarnall's - very solemn & large afternoon meeting at 12th Street. During the course of the week many private calls & visits - Thos. Evans (from the country) with me peacefully & satisfactorily two evenings - convention of W. Indian Fleets from New York - meetings good - 3d day North, 4th day 12th St. On 5th day to Merion a blessed little meeting - dined at Israel Morris's - & Richard Lloyd's. Son Parsons with me - next morning to Haverford - a very satisfactory visit - Last First day, a large & full meeting at North M. House - "In all their afflictions he was afflicted" a very searching solemn time. In the evening a very large meeting at Arch St. for friends of all the meetings. "If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me" - A deeply affecting leave taking. The Second day - very satisfactory visits to E.P.K. here where I parted in much quietness & peace; to Dr Collins & his family in deep affliction from the unexpected death of his son Henry - but there was a good life respecting him. In the aft. I took my last leave of my dear friend & sister H. Paul & was accompanied by her beloved husband to the steam boat for