ally dearest brother Samuel & Wm Forster my long tried long loved friend were waiting to receive us & hoped then late in the air as the noble Roscius made his fashionable appearance both happy, both in health, bringing good news of all the circle. The meeting was exceedingly pleasant. We were most kindly received by the Dr & Tabitha Hadwen, at whose house we had so largely drank of the waters of life, on leaving England. In the evening we attended the usual meeting which was large & solemn. I was much engaged both in ministry & prayer - shewing the practical nature of the principles which we profess.
Wm T. & Alex: continued a day to superintend the luggage - Samuel & I proceeded to London the next morning by the wonderous new Rail road. The country looked the picture of green freshness. We arrived about 7 o'cl: mildly at London & on leaving the carriage I had the great happiness of meeting my own dearest S. H. with Sam & Mary Gurney. It was easy to see & feel that all was right with him.
Nothing could be more joyous than the meeting with Abbie & Tory & all the Upton Family & the Buxtons on our arrival at Upton.
Included serenity & perfect ease were my happy lot. Third day was charming every way. I rode out with Dr in the morning & in the eve we had a large friendly dinner party the Hoares & his girls & Edward joining the family Richard & Margaret came down from London in the afternoon & we met warmest welcome. Fourth day, journey to Naples in Sam's coach with Farrell, Hannah & Betsy, & Pitt outside box.

Read part of the Wed & Brin Book & satisfaction - Took the last stage with Dr & the box - arrived at Sorrento about 9 o'cl: & was permitted a return Love in unclouded peace & joy - meeting my tenderly beloved Anna well & most happy; also sisters Catt & R. T. - bro's Jos.
Pritchard & Harry. Extremely pleasant & fully up to the mark at truly wa:. The next morning a sweet flowing meeting & joyful rendezvous with all the friends - A large family circle at including dear Abbie with us at dinner & in the evening.
Had gone round to my dearest Aunt Gurney's before sweetly & accompanied her sister. She is poorly. Sixth day. Called on Richard & his wife - very satisfactory - & pleasant happy interview with the bank - & returned home to receive an agreeable visit from the Bishop & his family. The Dr dined in family most pleasantly at John's - a great pleasure & satisfaction to have him settled at Sorrento. 7th day Pleasant Nineth day Easy & comforting development of affairs at the Bank. Red Relentlessly all scruples. I
