4th Jany Went to Town dind at S. Steretts, commencd Snowing at 9 O'Clock and continued all day, Wind S. E

Finishd loading Ship Mechanic, with 3200 bavels, in four days

5th Jany Snowd all last night, and only ceasd at 9 O'Clk this morning, it is about 12 Inches deep on an average

Went to Town, dind no where

Ship Wm. T. Henry Saild this morning for New Orleans - Wind N. W

Four Sleighs drove out this evening with Genl. Ridgelys Family &c &c

6th Tolerably mild day - Wind N. W.

Went to Town dind no where

The Snow is deeper than has fallen for many Years, and not so cold as might be expected, Harbor continues open

7 - Sunday - Cloudy morning & Snowd about half an hour, afterwards pleasant Mrs T. & Miss Meroney went to Church, and dined with Mrs P. Wingman

Henry & myself went to Dinner at Fuley met, all the Families there

8th Excessively cold, Ther. 10 this morning

Went to Town, dind at S. Steretts

Henry commencd writing with Mr Foster

Ther. 14 @ 8 P. M - Wind N. W

9 - Still colder, Ther. at 6 - this morning with Wind S. W

Harbor closed with Ice

Went to Town, dind no where more mild in the ev.g - Ther. 18

10 - Cold & clear, Ther. 16 , Wind W

Having a lame foot did not go to Town, commencd filling Ice House, and hauld 18 loads with two Carts, the Ice is nine inches thick & very hard

11 - Cold morning - Wind N. E

Went to Town, returnd to Dinner

Commencd Snowing at one O'Clock and continued all the Evening

Finishd filling the Ice House

12 Clear cold day - Ther. 20. Wind N. W

Went to Town returnd to Dinner

Foot better, but not quite well