1816 – Christmas Day, and as fine, mild Weather as ever was seen, indeed it is like an April day – Wind South –

My Throat not being well, staid at home & dind with my Children, afterwards rode to Finley to see the Bride & Groom, who went there to day –

Mrs T. remaind last Night at Wm Hollins & dind to day with Mr Fisher and Mr Welsh, came home in ev.g –

Mr Colt, S. Sterett & T. Tennant call'd this evening –

26 – Remarkable fine mild day – Wind So. Went to Town returnd to Dinner

27 – Weather continues clear & warm, more like April than December –

Went to Town, dind no where –

Wind changd this evening to N. W –

28 – Cool blustering day & cloudy –

Went to Town, dind no where –

Finishd collecting fine Plaster Paris on Smiths Wharf, having got upwards of 50 Loads –

29th Dec.r Sunday – Cloudy day – Wind N.W

Being unwell with a Sore throat remaind at home all day, Mrs T. went to Church & returnd to Dinner, P. Wingman rode out in the evening —— Cold –

30 Fine clear day and mild – Wind W –

Went to Town, returnd to dinner & found Miss Sterett, Miss Randle & Miss Peters who will stay all Night with us

31 – More delightful Weather was never experienced at the termination of a Year, it is clear and mild, and the Roads were never in better order

Went to Town, dind at Ja.s Sterells –

1817

January 1st Beautiful day and mild, but tolerable hard Frost last Night

Went to Town, dind at Isaac W. Rines Afterwards walkd home

2 – Continuance of same fine weather –

Went to Town & Eat a Oyster for Dinner –

Had the following Neighbors to Eat Oysters in the ev.g Mr S. Sterett, Augusta & Antoinette Rebecca & Ann Peters, Thos & Edward ——

Beautiful evening as ever was seen –