1817 Feby 6 – Morning cold, Ther.r 5 –
Went to Town, dind no where – 7 – Weather more moderate, Ther.r 10 at sunrise this morning, Wind West –
Went to Town, dind no where –
The Ice is upwards of 12 Inches thick between Fells Point & the Fort – 8 – Very mild day, but Frost last Night –
Went to Town and returnd to Dinner with Mr. Nicols, who had a small Party – 9 – Sunday – Snow for about 2 hours at day light, but day very mild –
T. Tenant, Sam. & J. James Sterett, also Peter Wingman dind with us
10 – A fine mild morning, but at 12
O'Clock became very cold – Wind N.W.
Went to Town, dind no where –
11 – Extreamly cold, Ther.r 5 at day light
Went to Town, dind no where – 12 – More cold. Ther.r 4 – Went to Town dind at Sa.l Sterett's – Mrs T. also rode in –

13 – Continues cold – Ther.r at sunrise 3 –
Went to Town, dind no where – 14 – Cold encreases – Therm.r at sunrise 0 and continued very severe all day –
15 – Still more cold – Ther.r 5 below 0 –
Went to Town, and dind with a large party at D. A. Smiths at 5 O'Clock – 16 – Sunday – Ther.r 2 above 0, and was clear & cold all day, indeed the last week has been the coldest I ever remember 0 without intermission –
Remaind at home all day, no company
17 – More mild, Ther.r at sunrise 12 –
Went to Town, dind at Mr Olivers – Commencd raining at Sunsett, which Freezing as it fell, formd a perfect sheet of Ice, and was extreamly slippery – Wind N.E.
18 – Tolerably mild, the roads & Streets are so slippery that Boys are Skaiting on them, both Rain & Snow at intervals during the day Went to Town, dind at Dr. Johnsons –
Mild evening – Ther.r 31 –