23rd June - A very fine day, had all the Hay spread out to dry & cock'd up in the ev.g -
Went to Town & brought out Mr Gwathmey to dinner, at which also had en-family Mrs Wingman, Miss Bowly, Mrs Walker and Mrs Meredith, & to Tea, Aug.n Hewett, Mrs Walsh & Miss Randale, who all left us early, after a pleasant day -
24, My right foot so much inflam'd, am compeld to remain at home -
Made a Stack of all the Hay cut down.
25 - Foot still worse & confines me to Bed, commenc'd from a sprain, but now puts on appearance of the Gout, and is excessively painful -
26 - Foot no better - Showery afternoon
27 - Pain in my foot a little easier -
We had last Night as heavy a Rain, for an hour or more as ever I recollect, but no Wind or Thunder

28 - Fine day - Wind N. E - & cool -
My foot a little easier, but still painful -
Mr Moore call'd in the morning, afterwards Mr Child who staid Dinner, and in the evening Mr Nicols -
29 Sunday - Commenc'd raining at 12 O'Clock last night, & continued without ceasing untill noon this day - Wind N. E.
Mr Tennant & Mr Hewett call'd and drank Tea with us -
30th Rain again nearly all last night, but beautifully clear to day -
Foot a little easier, but cannot walk, and oblig'd to keep the House -
July 1st - A clear cool day, with very high Wind at N. W - My foot a little easier, went to Town for an hour -
The late Rains have done much injury by overflowing & washing away Corn &c &c.
2 My foot a little easier but did not go to Town - fine day -
