

1815

1815 Sunday

Feb. 12. The Snow last Night about four Inches, but clearing up at sun-rise.
Mrs I had an uneasy night with a violent pain in her Jaw.

P. Wigman call'd in the forenoon.
Col. Powell, Rob. & D. Patterson and Mr
Moore din'd with us, Mr Nicols call'd in the evening.

Heard of the British having retreated from New Orleans.

13. Fine day but cold Wind N. W
Went to Town, din'd with S. Strett.

This morning the joyful news
arriv'd of Peace with England, bro't by a Sloop of War to N. York.

14. - Very cold - Wind N. W -
Went to Town, din'd nowhere - bro't out Miss Meroney in the Geog.

15. Fine day - Went to Town, din'd at P. Wigmans, call'd afterwards at Mr Nicols & sat a couple of hours -
The City Illuminated this Night in Honor of Gen. Jackson's Victory.

16. Fine day, Went to Town & was en-gag'd to dine at Gen. Ridgelys with Gen.
Scott & Family, but feeling a pain in my Face return'd home to dinner.

17. Fine day and more mild - Confin'd to the House with the Incipulas in my Face which is very painful.

18. - Light Rain in the morning.

My Face a little better, but Mrs I very bad with a pain in her Jaw.

19. Sunday - Cloudy day - clear ev'g.
Mr S. Strett came out to Dinner, and afterwards Doct. Harris, D. A. Smith, Peter Wigman, Jas. & Jos. Berett, they all staid & drank Tea.