

1017 Jan 7 19 - Very mild & pleasant day, and slight Frost last Night - Went to Town, dined nowhere -

20 - Mild day & occasionally Rain, no Frost.
Went to Town, dined at Mr. Tennants -

21 - Very mild day, Wind S. E. with frequent Showers of Rain, no Frost last night -
Went to Town, dined in Counting House.

22 - Clear and mild day - Wind West
Went to Town, dined in Counting House -

^{Sunday} 23 - Cloudy, blustering day Wind N. E. -

Remained at home all day, no company -

Mrs T. went to Church & dined at P. Wigmans

24 - The Wind was excessively high with Snow all Night at N. E., a dreadful Storm -
Went to Town, dined in Counting House -

The Snow continued all day until 4 O'clk and the ^{wind} changed to N. W. and was very high all day, which has drifted the Snow surprisingly, indeed some part of the Road is almost impassable, Ther. 22 -

HAY Haul'd a Stack of Hay into the Lofts -

25 Clear day, Wind N. W. Ther. 10 at sun rise & cold all day, went to Town, dined in Counting House -

26 - Clear morning, Ther. 15, but became warmer during the day & Wind S. E. -

TEA Went to Town, dined with Mr. Honig -

Cloudy evening, appearance of Rain - Opened a 7th Chest of Imperial Tea -

27 - Rained nearly all day Wind S. E. mild Went to Town, dined at P. Wigmans -

Reuben underwent the singular effect of conversion this evening, which lasted 5 hours

28 - Mild, hazy day & Rain in afternoon.

Went to Town, dined with Dr. Harris -

Snow nearly all disappeared, but the Ice continues in our River & Harbor -

March 1st Cloudy blustering day Wind N. W.

Went to Town, dined at Jas. Howells with Mr. Can, Doct. Harris &c -

We had yesterday an appearance of the Harbor opening, but it is again very cold and the Ice will become hard to night -