1842
June 30 — Hot weather increases Ther. 90 —
Went to Town, return'd Home to Dinner — July 1 — An agreeable change in the weather but no Rain, which is very much wanted — Ther. 85 —
Went to Town return'd to Dinner —
2 — Fine day — went to Town, din'd in Counting House —
3 — Hot Sultry day, with a small Gust of Thunder & Rain at 2 O'Clock —
din'd in Count.g Ho.
4 — Hot day, — Went to Town met the Turnpike Road Com.rs at Gorsuch's Tavern — Return'd to Dine with the Quoit Club at Fromentines — 5 — Sunday Fine warm day, Mr. T.
went to Church & din'd at P. Wigman's — Child, Riggin & P. W. din'd with me.
6 — Fine day but Hot, went to Town
din'd in Counting House
Henry arrived from West Point very well
7 — Very hot day — Went to Town din'd in Counting House — Had a Gust at 5 O'Clock — Mr. McLanahan arrived from N. O. & came out to stay all Night —

8 — Rather more pleasant day —
Went to Town, din'd in Count.g House — 9 — Hot, dry day — Went to Town din'd at Mr. Alex.r Browns with Mr.
McLanahan Jr. at Springfield —
10 — Very hot day — Wind S. W —
Went to Town, din'd in Counting House
11 Extreamly Hot and dry weather —
Went to Town return'd to Dinner —
12 Sunday — Weather still more Hot, indeed I think the hottest day I ever knew — Ther. 96
Had the following Gentlemen to Dinner
Small Red Book
Mr. Gaiman, W. Taylor, J. Walker, J. Hewett Dance, Carter, McLanahan, Jn.o Thomas, Jr.
Child, Tennant, D. T. Smith, Geo. Brown
13 Rather more cool, but still Hot — Went to Town, where the Ther. was yesterday 98 and to day 94 —
Rode to Hampton to dinner & Home in the evening, had a very Severe Thunder Gust at 6 O'Clock & heavy rain,