1st January 1819 —
A very beautiful day and mild —
Went to Town, dind with Mr. Riggin at Jo. Youngs, a small but very agreeable party.
2 — Mild day, and Cloudy — Wind S. E —
Went to Town, din'd at P. Wingmans. —
3 — Sunday — Commenc'd Snowing at eight O'Clock this morning, and continued all day without intermission, Wind N. E — mild.
Remain'd at home, no company —
4 — Clear day, and not Cold —
Went to Town, dind with Chas. Carroll at Homewood, a small, pleasant party —
5 — Clear and mild — Wind S. —
Went to Town, dind at Mr. Olivers —
Ice in the Harbor, but not clos'd, the Nights are cold, and days mild —
6 — Very fine & pleasant — Wind N. W went to Town returnd to Dinner —
7 — Cold last night but mild to day —
Went to Town, dind at Bonnefongs N. E

8 — Cloudy morning Wind N. E, mild.
Went to Town, commenc'd Snowing at 10 O'Clock and continued all day —
Dind at Mr. D'Arcys with a large party at ½ past 4 O'Clock, very sumptuous —
Came home at 7 O'Clock, ceas'd Snowing —
9 — Mild & very hazy — no Frost last ev.g —
Went to Town, returnd to Dinner with
Col. Mosher & Jno. Hillen at ½ past one,
and afterwards rode with them to Wm
Sindells to value Damages done him by the Baltimore & Harford Turnpike Co — 10 — Sunday, Same hazy and mild day,
no Frost last Night & quite calm —
At home all day, the follow.g Gentlemen
dind with me, Cap. Ridgely, Lyde
Goodwin, Riggin, Travers & Child, Mr.
J. Sorell & Dance rode out in the ev.g —
11 — A continuation of mild, Foggy weather and no Frost in the night, — calm —
Went to Town, dind in Count.y House —