1819
March 5 – Cloudy day & mild – S. E.
Went to Town, dined in Count.y House –
6 – Clear & quite warm – Robins appeared on the Lawn this morning – Wind – So – Went to Town, dined at Hall Harrisons –
7 Sunday – Cold & Cloudy – Wind N. E.
John Wm accompanied me to Long Green, dined with Mr Gittings & returned Home
in the evening – Roads according bad
8 – Rain & Snow this morning, cold & unpleasant
Went to Town, dined in Count.y House
Wind changed to N. W. and clear –
9 – Clear and cold day – Wind N. W.
Went to Town, dined at Jas. Perrells –
10 Cloudy day – Wind N. E.
Went to Town, dined with Mr Riggin at Jo. Youngs
Schooner Decatur arrived from New Orleans
11 – Commenced Snowing this morning at day light, & continued all day without ceasing, it is on an Average nine Inches deep, the Wind blows a Gale at N. E. –
Dined with Hall Harrison in his Counting House
off Oysters –

12 – Slight Rain & Snow in the morning, but fair afternoon altho' Cloudy – S. E. –
Went to Town, dined at J. Perretts. –
13 Wind changed to N. W. – and cold –
Went to Town, dined in Count.y House –
14 – Sunday – Wind excessively high at N. W. last night & continues all day, and very hard Frost –
At home all day, Gen.l Ridgely and Mr Oliver called in the evening; very cold 15 – Hard Frost last night & cold morning,
Wind changed to S. E. and cloudy
Went to Town, dined in Counting House –
Planted a Clump of Cedars before the House
16 – More Snow last Night, the Wind changed this evening to N. W. & cold
Went to Town, dined at Mr Youngs
17 – Cold clear day – Wind S. W.
Went to Town, dined at Count.y House
18 – More mild – Wind S. E.
Went to Town, dined in Count.y House