5 Dec.r Again cooler, Wind - N. W.
Went to Town, dind in Count.y House -
The Brig Gen.l Macomb saild thro' the Ice.
6 - Very cold last night & to day - N. W.
The Harbor is now clos'd with Ice, no Vessel arriv'd, or Saild this day, and the River is Frozen over to North Point. -
Went to Town, dind at Mr Riggins. -
7 - Rather more mild - - W.
Went to Town, dind at Mr Tenants -
8 - Same as yesterday, clear - W.
Considerable floating Ice in the River &
the Gen.l Macomb not yet through it -
Went to Town, dind in Count.y House
9 - Sunday - Very fine day - So.
Went to Town, returnd to Dinner, at which we had Mr Hutchinson, Riggin, Child, Meaney & John Harrison - Gen.l Ridgely & Mr Oliver call'd and sat an hour, all very agreeable - Wind N. E & hazy -

10 - Cloudy morning - Wind N. E.
Went to Town, dind at Williamsons - Commenc'd Snowing at 10 O'Clock &
continued until 11 P. M. -
Our Son Henry arriv'd from N. York.
11 - Clear and mild day. - Wind W.
the Snow is about five Inches deep - Went to Town returnd to dinner, &
Salted the nine Hogs bo.t on 31st Ult.o
they have been Frozen ever since - Accompanied Henry to a dancing party at Mr Riggins, which was very agreeable, returnd Home in the Gig at 12 O'Clock - - cooler night
12 - Very cold day - Wind N. W.
Went to Town, dind in Count.y House -
The Ice has disappeard up to the Fort, but is very thick between there and Fells Point - extremely cold evening.