1820

24 January – Hard frost last night & cool to day, with wind at N. W – clear –

25 – Cold night, but mild to day – S. W – dind in counting house

Went to Town dind in Count.g House –

All the Ice gone below the Fort, and a track through to Fells Point –

26 – Hazy and cool morning – N. E –

Went to Town, dind in Count.g House, commenced Snowing at 4 O'Clock – and continued until 9 O'Clock – P. M –

27 – Clear and mild day – Wind – So.

Went to Town, dind in Count.g House –

the track thro' the Ice clos'd again –

28 – Hazy and mild – calm –

Went to Town, dind in Count.g House –

29 – Same mild weather, no wind –

Went to Town, dind at Mr. Tenants –

30 – Sunday, Hazy, raw day – N. E –

Jas. Gittings slept here last night, Hal and myself rode up with him to Long Green, dind with old Mr. Gittings –

31 – Wind chang'd to N. W & cold –

Went to Town, dind in Counting House.

John Willm. rode to Mr. R. Ridgelys –

February 1st – Very cold day – N. W –

Went to Town, dind in Count.g House –

John Wm returnd from Elk-ridge –

Ther.r at sunsett 18 –

2 – Not so cold as yesterday. – S. E –

Went to Town, dind in Counting House –

Hal dind at the Fort, and brought home with him Lieut. Hamtranck –

3 – Rain last night and continued at intervals all day – mild – S. E –

No Ice below the Fort, but 12 Inches thick between there & Fells point –

Went to Town, dind in Count.g House –

4 – Wind chang'd last night to N. W.

Cool & clear Frost – Went to Town dind in Count.g House –

Hal went last night to Cotillion party.