20 Sunday - Beautiful weather: W.
The nights are cool enough for blankets - Foot better, at home all day, no company — Dated red Heifer - 21 - Rather warmer, but cool evenings. So.
Went to Town returned to Dinner, &
afterwards rode a little way up the road - 22 - Warm day, a beautiful Shower for half an hour at 2 P. M — So. - Went to Town, returned to Dinner.
Col Tenant called in the evening for Miss Mei.
23 - Fine day; went to Town returned to dinner, my foot better, but I am now troubled with a Sore throat Sowed Rye in Field next to Gilmans.

24 - Very fine day, my throat worse &
confines me to the House — 25 - Weather continues very pleasant.
My throat still worse, it is excessively swelled & inflamed - 26 - Very cloudy & a Gale of Wind S.W.
My throat a little better, but remain confined to my room -
A fine Shower of Rain at 4 P. M
My right foot again painful in the eve.
27 Sunday - The opposite side of my Throat is now Sore, and my right foot again very painful, which is truly distressing Unaccountable, for Mrs. T. has nursed me with uncommon care and attention day and night - September 4th - since the above
I have been confined with a violent sore throat, & Gout in both my feet, which are thank God, all getting better
