January 13th - Commenced Snowing again this morning at 9 O'Clock & continued until 12, afterwards hazy & very damp, no Wind -
Went to Town, dined in Counting House -
We have light Frost every night but moderate during the day, Sleighing very fine, the Snow is about 16 Inches deep on an average -
Sunday - 14th Very dull hazy day, mild & calm with Fog, no Frost last night -
At home all day, no company, John Wm went to Church, returnd to Dinner -
Freezing in the evening - Wind No -
15 - Hard frost last night, clear day - N. W
Went to Town, dined with Mr Riggin -
16 - Very cold and clear day - Wind No -
Went to Town dined in Count. House -
Still colder after sun - sett & cloudy -
17 - Snowing again this morning & continued sligholy all day - very Cold - Ther. 10. No
Went to Town, dined at Mrs Stiles -
18 - Very cold & clear day - Ther - 17 - No -
Went to Town, dined in Count. House -
Gen.l Jo.h Sterett died this day -

19 - Cold still more severe, Ther. this morning at sunrise, 6 degrees below 0 out of doors, Wind North, and remarkably clear. -
Went to Town, dined in Counting House -
Doct. Stuart, Rob.t & John Oliver and Hugh Thompson rode out in a Sleigh this evening, the Roads never in better order for Sleighing -
20 - Rather more mild - Ther. at 10 - sunrise. -
Went to Town, dined with Mr Riggin -
Gen.l Jos.h Sterett was buried to day with Military Honors, & a large attendance of citizens -
21 - Sunday - Very mild & clear day, calm -
Remaind at home, the following gentlemen dined with us - Col Tenant, Riggin, Travers, Child & Lyde Goodwin, afterwards G. Howard & Jn.o Thomas came out in a Sleigh. -
Clear and frosty evening -
22 - Cloudy and mild day - Wind N. E hazy
Went to Town, dined at Count. House. -
Commenced Raining at Sunsett. -
23 - Cloudy but mild day, thawing - So -
Went to Town, dind at Mrs Stiles -
Wind changd in the ev.g to N. W. & was quite cold again, roads very slippery.