January 24th Very cold Ther. 10 – Wind No.
Went to Town, returned to dinner at Mr Nicols & walked home at 7 O'Clock, the weather still colder, Ther. down to 4 & very clear – 25 – Extremely cold day, Ther. at sunrise
4 degrees below 0 – very clear – N.W
Went to Town, dined in Count. House –
Excessive cold at sun-sett –
26 – Still more cold, Thermometer at sunrise
8 degrees below 0, but was more mild
during the day – Wind changed to South –
Went to Town dined at Mr. Wiggmans – 27 Raining and freezing in the morning which makes the Streets so slippery; Boys are skating on the foot pavements, ceased raining at 10 O'Clock & became quite mild – Went to Town, dined at Mrs Stiles – 28 – Sunday – Slight Frost last night, but beautifully clear and mild day –
Mrs T. – John, Sam & Hannis went to Church, returned to dinner, except John who dined at Col Tenants –
At home all day, no company – S.W

29 Slight Frost in the night, but very mild to day and quite clear, also calm –
Went to Town, dined in Count. House –
30 – Continues uncommonly mild & calm –
Went to Town, dined at Mr Riggins –
31 – Same mild & calm weather but cloudy –
Went to Town, returned to dinner & afterwards hung up our Bacon to Smoak – Wm but rode out to stay all night – February 1st Rained nearly all night, and occasionally very heavy, which has raised the streams of Water prodigiously & in some instances broken up the Ice, which will probably do much injury –
Went to Town dined in Count. House –
Our Harbor & River continue closed with Ice –
2 – Slight Frost in the night, but mild day,
Went to Town dined in Count. House –
3 – Very mild & no Frost last night, very hazy with slight rain, went to Town dined at Mrs Stiles – Roads very bad –
4 – Sunday – Very hazy and damp – N.E.
no Frost, at home all day, no company,
John went to Church returned to dinner –