March 14 – Wind changed in the night to N.W and was more cool, but very pleasant – Went to Town, returned to Dinner, busy gardening, ploughing & burning leaves –

15 – Very fine day, & quite warm – S.W – Went to Town returned to Dinner –

16 – Very warm forenoon, indeed quite sultry, Went to Town, returned to dinner – So.

The Wind suddenly changed at 5 O'Clock to North, was very high & cold, & to my great surprise commenced snowing at 7 O'Clock & so continued at Bed-time –

17 – The ground coverd with Snow and hard Frost; high N.W. wind & very cold, a difference of 40 degrees between this day & yesterday, went to Town dined with Mr Riggin as also did Harry –

18 – Sunday – Continues very cold & a little more Snow – Wind still at N.W & high – Jas Gittings & Harry Carol dined with us, afterwards Hal, John & myself walked to Mr Nicols & drank Tea there – very Cold w.g.

19 March – Rather more mild, high Wind N.W Went to Town, dined at Mrs Stiles –

20 – Snowing again this morning, which continued with occasional Rain all day – S.W – Went to Town dined in Counting House –

21. Wind changed in the night to N.W – and was very high, the day clear and pleasant – Set off at 6 O'Clock to Belle-Air, being summoned to attend the Court now sitting there, arrivd at half past ten in a Sulkey –

22 – Very fine mild day, the business upon which I was summoned being postponed for a few days, I had permission to return home, left Belle-Air at 12 O'Clock & arrivd at four.

23 – Very pleasant day – Wind S.E – Went to Town, dined in Court of House – Black Cow with Mr Aldemey –

Sent the Aldemey Bull to Mr Skinner –

24 – Warm and blusteing – Wind S.W Went to Town and thence to Belle-Air by agreement with the Court, finish'd the business upon which I was summoned and remained there all night –