Isaac Brooks,
David Griscom,
Hannah Hoge,
Dorothy Hopkins."

Epistles addressed to Philadelphia, Rhode Island and North Carolina were read and directed to be signed.

The meeting adjourned to 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

1st of the month and 5th of the week according to adjournment friends assembled.

Epistles addressed to Indianna, Ohio and Virginia Yearly meetings were produced, approved and directed to be signed on behalf of the meeting.

The clerks were directed to send the Epistles received from other Yearly meetings, also an extract from our minute relative to the state of society to the Quarterly meetings.

Adjourned to 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

2nd of the month and 6th of the week near the time appointed the meeting gathered.

The joint committee appointed to consider the propriety of making the proposed change in the discipline, produced the following report which was read, considered and united with.

To the Yearly meeting now sitting:

The joint committee of men and women friends appointed to consider the propriety of the adoption of a rule of discipline in relation to the minor children of the Seperatists, [redacted] having conferred together are free to propose to the meeting, that the following be adopted in reference to such children, where both parents or the surviving parent have joined in the seperation.

Whilst feelings of tenderness and love, towards this class of our members have pervaded our minds; on account of the trying situation in which they have been placed by influences beyond their control, and under a sense of the difficulties which stand in our way to a due execution of our present discipline, we are enabled to look upon the proposed change as one entirely prospective in its operation