Balt. J. 22. 1861

Col. Blom

Dear friend

I have heard in Mobile for until the 2d day. We called to Cousin Willis in an adjoining office. He read the letters over with usual interest. They are at work again in good earnest clearing up the debris.

Sorry to hear such an account of the glass — the right size was given but the wrong sent by the factory. They have to wait to buy it in Providence. Considering the trifle expense on a few kegs of nails & the small profit they pay the storekeeper, please buy them also.

The application of the lower lot of $50 to E. Harrison does. Have heard a deal for Pride Mobile & Them did right for Christmas.

Sent them milk, etc. cannot come. Felt keenly disappointed.

Willie Lambert sends your letter I suppose Federal.
If them cant get the clothing ready for us by Repeal, them can request E. Harrison to gather it for them by letter — he can have it here to forward them.
Do try & get to India & Mobile & Jones. I fear them will be hurried to the forward & confined in City city there. Suppose them visits us now & India later — but if them would prefer being at home by