I should think then could safely do so. I should expect that to make they home with me. I am at my mother's & she will keep a bed for them.
The boys of Cl. Chas are for them to distribute as under circumstances, especially at Deep Creek or Carlisle.
Then can discuss all the Fields & Plights in these suggests - a grant to the Mr Inges.
We will send the pamphlet & Blanks tomorrow.
We have just paid Jno Cox who has been here the balance of our appropriations for Station & repairs. There is yet due the Rounding School from us about three or three hundred - the circuit judge at Jf, Dey, whether believed that amount to be selectively or separate instead of laying it out in expensive office but that will come go to pay - half as to judge.
As soon as there can judge about the expenses of the coming year, including another removal of Goods & perhaps a place made we will notify of our expenses. We can judge then about physical relief this winter & as to agriculture. As regards the latter I fear we will have to content ourselves with patience - We will talk that over when we meet.
Rueben Brown a young man of Indiana has written to his friends for friends to marry Mr Coffin, an elderly