Near the time adjourned to friends assembled.

The minutes of the meeting for sufferings for the last year, being produced and read, were approved and read, and that meeting continued.

This meeting is informed that our friend John Brown, formerly appointed by this meeting a member of the meeting for sufferings, is deceased, William Brown is therefore appointed to that service, and the clerk is directed to furnish the meeting for sufferings with a copy of this minute.

A testimony being produced to this meeting from Monallen monthly meeting, approved by Warrington quarter, for our beloved friend Isaac Everett deceased, was read, and directed to be recorded in the book provided for that purpose.

Gerard T Hopkins, on behalf of the Committee appointed to revise and get the minutes of this meeting recorded, reports that the service is fully performed.

The meeting adjourns to the 9th hour to morrow morning 13th of the month and 4th of the week, near the time adjourned to, friends assembled.

The comprised answers to the queries being now read, the state of society, as contained therein, was spread before the meeting, friends minds were led into an exercise and travail, on account of the deficiencies which are still apparent, and a desire was felt that the members might be gathered from mixing with the customs and manners of the world, which tend to alienate the affections from the pursuit of those things which would be our surest benefits.

That parents and heads of families may seriously consider their own situations, whether their examples before their tender offspring, and those under their direction are such as becomes the elevated station they stand in. And as an inordinate love for the acquisition of the things of this world, may lead some to extend their business farther than their abilities are capable of managing, friends are affectionately recommended to labour after strength to overcome such a disposition. And that friends be diligently watchful in all their departments over their own spirits, waiting, in humility, for strength and ability to labour in Gospel love, with those who may still be in the practice of importing, distilling, vending, and the unnecessary use of spirituous liquors, & send an account of their care herein to the meeting next year.

The standing committee on the pasture lot brought in the following report, viz:

To the Yearly meeting now sitting.

"We the committee on the pasture lot agree to report, that some "improvements have been made since last year, and that we ap- "prehend some further will be necessary the ensuing year, which "together with the current expences (we believe will amount to "the sum of $300.

"We are also free to inform that a proposition is made by "Christopher Walker, and James Edwards, to exchange a small "piece of ground, so as to accommodate friends with a more convenient "road to the lot, upon such terms as we believe will be to the advan- "tage of friends, all which we submit to the Yearly-meeting.

Which, being read and considered, is concurred with, and that committee directed to call on the treasurer for the sum proposed, or any part thereof, and with respect to the exchange proposed by the committee, it appears to be the united judgment of the meeting at this time to leave it to the said friends to act as prudence may direct.

Then adjourned to the 4th hour this afternoon.

Near the time adjourned to, friends assembled.

The committee on the request from Redstone brought in the following report.

"To the yearly-meeting now sitting.

"We the committee appointed on the request from Redstone "quarter, relative to the publication of testifications &c. have met, "examined our discipline so far as relates to that subject, and, "after a free communication of sentiments thereon, unanimous- "ly agree to report, that we do not think any alteration in that "part of our discipline can profitably take place at this time, "which we submit to the meeting.
