a school & a meeting house - ending with the land $1100 - all paid for but $200.
$100 to a school on the Potomac where Lord Balt.o first landed; the freedmen in this county are all Catholics, as their masters left them up in that faith. Mr Jenkins & friends have recently purchased there & formed a first class school house & it is filled daily in spite of the Priests.
I must close in haste & not be able to read over my last few sheets - mail time nearly up.
I have rec.d the valued letter of 31st since writing this letter, with its liberal remittances, - £127. 14. 5 for N.C. balance to Freedmen - I will carefully apply all of the latter to friends associations intended of course - all remittances that are made in your name, the Ass.n for the Freedmen deeply feel your continued aid - so do our N.C.
Com.e - we often speak of it &
