4

I am afraid to say much about N.C. for fear of repeating so often letters to them or to the Friends. I occasionally put up in friends' Hands the Press. Our general remittances paid directly to our Treasurer & Clerk appear in our report in the 11th Mo. £500 £200 - £127.14.5 They had a letter (4th Mo.) stated the funds to be 3000 the year now over 4000 yet we have only received the 11th yet we have made the additions & cross pay the cost of their tuition. Our very dear friend William Hills his position admirably - he is a splendid preacher - very successful in his management - & one of the most inspiriting preachers I ever heard - he can draw the largest crowds I ever saw in that state & he has a soft palate which affects his voice - but there is a charm in his voice after you have heard him a few times, yet used to it - he is of a child he is as simple & loving as a child & with all his force of character he is the meekest gift to us & there is the secret of the blessing that attends his labors. He has a charming wife of his age & an Elder - they think of forming a farm & settling in N.C. She has been to the Yearly Meeting & intends to go again in the 11th Mo. I then expect to hold the Meetings throughout Friends neighborhoods for we are about to withdraw a large part of our pecuniary aid. We have notified them that they must depend on the sale of