1st Answer

All our Meetings have been held (except one small Meeting from which we have no late account and which is under care) Those on first days and for Discipline generally attended by a considerable number of Friends — Our other Meetings sometimes small — Unbecoming behaviour therein mostly avoided — and the hour nearly observed.

2nd

Many Friends are concerned to maintain Love towards each other as becomes our Christian profession, Also, to discourage tatlebearing and detraction, and when differences arise use endeavour to end them.
