Do excuse poor penmanship. I have many letters to write & cannot copy as I used to do, if faculty. The children of the family appear to have forgotten me. Love to Samuel & Gerard. Little Josie. And Jane & Mary Sue too. While Martha child, send me thy pictures for a Christmas gift. I want to see if resemble thy father, mother, or sisters. Dear one, adieu,

My dear Cousin &

12. 16. 1888.

Thanks through Martha's kindness, for thy letter of last month, giving accounts of Yearly Meeting, and family matters so satisfactory, with the exception of John Janney's suffering condition, which must be very trying to himself and family.

We likewise had the privilege through dear Henry Janney's kindness, of reading the account given in the Balt. papers, of the transactions of the Y. Mtg. which were well written, and interesting; and am so glad thou were able dear cousin, to attend some of the sessions, and Martha being with thee, enjoyed them also. — It would not have been well for thee to have had lodgers as formerly — when thou were able, thou did thy part in that line, entertaining many more than others, in days gone by, who cannot but
