The printed general epistle, from our brethren of the yearly meeting of London, was produced and read, and also a written one particularly addressed to this meeting. The valuable matter contained in the former, having impressed the meeting with a belief, that it would be productive of good, if circulated amongst our members generally; John M'Kim and Philip E. Thomas were appointed to agree with a printer, for printing 2500 copies, inspect the press, and call upon the treasurer for the amount of expence incurred.

The representatives were directed to confer together at the close of this sitting, nominate a friend to serve the meeting as clerk this year, as also another to assist him & report to next sitting.

The meeting being informed that the house erected in Lombard street in the western part of this city for the accommodation of the Yearly meeting was now in readiness, it was concluded to adjourn to meet there, the 3rd hour, this afternoon.

Pursuant to adjournment friends met.

James Mendenhall, on behalf of the representatives reported that they had met, and on conferring together had agreed to propose Gerard T. Hopkins as Clerk, and Edward Stabler to assist him — which was united with by the meeting, and they accordingly appointed.

Epistles of correspondence, directed to this meeting from our brethren of the yearly meetings of Philadelphia, New-York, Virginia and North Carolina, were now produced, and, being read, were truly acceptable.

The following friends were appointed to prepare epsays of epistles to the several Yearly meetings with which we correspond, to be produced to a future sitting, viz.
