

In addition to the attendance of our beloved friend William Cratch, we have at this annual assembly been favoured with the truly acceptable company of many brethren from the neighbouring Yearly Meetings—during the several sittings of which we trust we have evidenced the canopy of divine regard to be over us, enabling us, in much harmony, and nearness of affection, to deliberate upon the important concerns which have come before us. Under acknowledgements of gratitude to the Author of all good, for the favours dispensed the meeting adjourns to the usual time next year if so permitted.

At a Yearly Meeting of Friends held in Baltimore, for the Western Shore of Maryland, and the adjacent parts of Pennsylvania, and Virginia, and the State of Ohio, by adjournments from the 13th of the 10th mo to the 18th of the same inclusive, 1806.

Who being called were present except those against whose names a mark is prefixed, for the absence of most of whom reasons were assigned.

The general printed epistle from our brethren of the Yearly meeting held in London, as also that particularly addressed to this meeting—likewise epistles from the yearly meetings of Philadelphia, New York, Rhode-Island, Virginia, and that held for the Carolinas were received, which being read more truly ^{acceptably} and in order that the valuable matter contained in the general epistle from London, may become more extensively useful, it was concluded to have 2500 copies printed, to be apportioned between our quarterly meetings. John W. Kim, and Philip & Thomas were appointed to agree with a printer for the above number, who were also directed to inspect the proof sheet, and call upon ~~the~~ the treasurer for the amount of the expences.

The following friends were appointed to prepare essays of epistles to the Yearly meetings with which we correspond, who were desired to produce them to a future sitting, to wit:

Evan Thomas	Asa Moore	Horton Howard
James Mendenhall	Jonathan Taylor	Jonathan Joseph
David Grave	Hugh Judge	Jonathan Wright
James Gillingham	Caleb Bentley	David Lupton
George Ellicott	Philip & Thomas	Elisha Janney.

The representatives were desired to confer together at the close of the present sitting, in order to agree upon a clerk, and an assistant, to be proposed at the opening of our next sitting.

Then adjourned to the 3rd hour this afternoon.

When friends again assembled.

James Mendenhall on behalf of the representatives reported, that they had agreed to propose Gerard S. Hopkins to serve the meeting as clerk, and Edward Stabler to assist him, with which the meeting concurred.

The report from Redstone quarter containing information that Samuel Jackson had appealed from the judgment of Redstone monthly meeting, confirmed by that quarter, and that they had appointed Jonas Cattell, Abra^m Warrington, William Dixon, and Timothy Smith, to attend the Yearly
