

them that "good will" which remains to be one of the essential and distinguishing characteristics of the truly christian mind. Then adjourned to the 3rd hour this afternoon.

When friends again met.

The following report from the committee appointed last year relative to the request of Short Creek and Concord monthly meetings, was produced, viz:

We the committee appointed to visit Red-Stone quarterly meeting, and the monthly meetings of Concord and Short Creek report, that we have attended the same and upon taking the whole into consideration, as far as we have been capable, agree, to give it, as our sense, that their request should be granted in the following manner, that a quarterly meeting be established at Short Creek, to be held on the seventh day after the first second day, in the third, sixth, ninth, and twelfth months, and be known by the name of Short Creek quarterly meeting - and that the first meeting be held at the proposed time in the sixth month next, to begin at the 11th hour in the morning - the meeting for ministers and elders the preceding day, also at the 11th hour. All which is submitted to the meeting by James Mendenhall John McKim

Joseph Griest Jonas Cattell.
David Lupton
Rebecca McKoy Hannah Marsh.
Rebecca Griest

Which was deliberately read, and solidly weighed and many friends having expressed their unity therewith, it was concluded that the Quarterly meeting be accordingly established. And in order to attend the opening thereof the following friends were appointed, who were desired to extend the necessary care to this very interesting service, and report of their attention to the meeting next year. William Trimble, George Ellicott, Evan Thomas, Jonathan Jessop, Thomas Wood, Abel Thomas, William Hough, Abraham Branson, William Yeates, David Grave, William Dixon, Thomas French.

The report from Red-Stone quarter informs, that a Middleton and Salem monthly meetings had requested the establishment of a quarterly meeting at Salem, to be distinguished by the name of Salem, and which they had agreed to forward for the consideration of the yearly meeting. The meeting after weighing the interesting proposal, concluded to refer it to the solid consideration of a committee who were directed to confer with the representatives of Red-Stone quarter, endeavour to feel after its propriety, and report their prospect thereon to a future sitting viz

Jacob Tyson	Jonathan Ellicott
Joseph Thornburg	James Gillingham
Benjamin Harris	Joseph Griest
Abel Walker	Jona Wright
Reuben Schooley	John Cadwalader
Jacob Griffith	and Horton Howard.
William Wood	Edward Jones
John Butcher	Jonas Cattell

The committee appointed at a former sitting on the appeal of Samuel Jackson, produced the following report, viz:

We the committee appointed on the appeal of Samuel Jackson, from the judgment of Red-Stone monthly meeting, confirmed by that quarter against him, report that we have met, and having carefully examined the minutes and proceedings of the said meetings, in his case, as also the papers sent by him to this committee, and upon due consideration, do unitedly agree that the judgment of the quarterly meeting be confirmed. Which we submit to the meeting. 18th of 10th mo 1806.

William Brison	Moses Dillon	Jonathan Ellicott
Joseph Thornburg	Joseph Garretson	Joseph Griest
Jesse Hughes	Solomon Shepherd	David Lupton
William Yeates	Jonas Janney	William Hough.

Which being read and considered, was concurred with, and Red-Stone Quarterly meeting left at liberty to proceed accordingly. Joseph Beale, and Jacob Griffith were appointed to inform him of the conclusion of this meeting.

Minutes of the proceedings of the meeting for Sufferings, for the last year, were produced and read, with which approbation was expressed, and that meeting again continued.

Then adjourned to the ninth hour to morrow morning.
