Friends met pursuant to adjournment.

When the interesting consideration of the proposed discipline was again resumed, and after a further progress therein, the meeting adjourned to the third hour this afternoon.

Pursuant to adjournment friends assembled.

The committee appointed at a former sitting produced the following report.

We the committee appointed by the Yearly meeting of men and women friends to take into consideration the request of Middleton and Salem monthly meetings as contained in the report from Red Stone quarter, after conferring with the representatives from that meeting and deliberating thereon, unanimously agree to propose to the yearly meeting to appoint a committee to visit these meetings, in order to feel after the propriety of their request.

Signed on behalf of the Committee

Horton Howard Jonathan Wright John Butcher
Mary Mifflin Margaret Elgar Mary Hunt

Which having claimed the solid consideration of the meeting, it was concluded to appoint a committee to visit the quarterly meeting thro' which the request was forwarded, as also the monthly meetings which made the request, who were directed to report to the meeting next year, the prospects with which they may be favoured relative to the very interesting subject.

The following friends were accordingly appointed to the service, to wit.

William Trimble	George Ellicott	Evan Thomas
Jonathan Jessep	Thomas Wood	Abel Thomas
William Hough	Abraham Branson	William Yeates
David Grave	William Dixon	Thomas French

The meeting again resumed the consideration of the proposed discipline, and proceeded therein to the end of the work *
