Yearly meeting.

From ancient records it appears, that the first yearly meeting in Maryland was held on West River, in the year 1672, C.E.

That for many years the meeting was held alternately at and at Fredricksburg, on the eastern shore, West River, on the western shore of Maryland. That agreeably to an arrangement, which took place in the year 1790, the yearly meeting was removed to be held in Baltimore only, and to be composed of representatives from the quarterly meetings on the western shore of Maryland, and the adjacent parts of Pennsylvania and Virginia; to which has since been added the state of Ohio.

The yearly meeting is held on the second first day in the tenth month. A public meeting for worship at the tenth hour in the morning, and another at the third hour in the afternoon. The meeting for discipline is opened at the tenth hour on second day.
