Then adjourned to the 10th hour tomorrow morning.

13th of the month and 3rd of the week.

According to adjournment friends met.

The answers to the queries, as brought up in the reports from the quarters, having been at this season brought into view, after a time of deep travail, and a progress made as far as to the 5th query, it was concluded to adjourn to the 3rd hour this afternoon.

Pursuant to adjournment friends again assembled.

X The answers to the queries, as brought up in the reports from the quarterly meetings, being again resumed many remarks and advices deeply interesting to the welfare of our religious society were expressed.

Amongst the subjects which particularly engaged the consideration of the meeting, the education of the beloved youth was felt to be of very interesting importance, and a concern was expressed, that those to whom this trust was committed, may be labour for a right qualification to instruct them in the fear of the Lord, and to regard duly those secret visitations of divine love graciously communicated, for their preservation and peace, being exemplary to them in religious meetings, in families, and in temporal employments; thus evincing to them, by our practice, a steady regard in relation to ourselves, to that principle of divine intelligence, to which we recommend their attention.

Our important testimony in regard to war, was also at this time deeply felt, and a correspondent exercise expressed for the rectitude of our members in regard thereto. Believing, as we do, that the spirit of the gospel breathes "peace on earth, and good will to men," and that our religious society has been eminently called to be instrumental in the advancement of that day, when "the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the seas," and "its inhabitants shall learn war no more." A travail, was deeply felt, that we may practically demonstrate that we are subjects of the peaceful reign of the Messiah. This would lead us to avoid an interference not only with those warlike preparations, which at the present time disturb the national quiet, but also the expression of speculative opinions on the political affairs of this unstable world, and the commotions which agitate it; liberties which frequently occasion the "strife of tongues," and lead to contentions inconsistent with our religious profession. It is the ardent concern
