And in order that the truly valuable and salutary matter contained in the general epistle may become extensively useful it was concluded to have three thousand copies printed, to be apportioned between the quarterly meetings. Philip & Thomas and William Riley were appointed to agree with a printer for the above number, who were also directed to inspect the proof sheet, & call upon the treasurer for the amount of the expence.

The following friends were appointed to prepare essays of epistles to the Yearly meetings with which we correspond, who were desired to produce them at a future sitting (to wit)
