Which was accepted and the clerk directed to—
Furnish that Quarter with a copy of the report, and of this minute, George Ellicott and Joseph Townsend, were appointed to inform her of the judgment of this meeting.

Essays of endorsements on the Certificates of our friends, who have attended this meeting, from neighbouring Yearly Meetings were produced, read, and approved, and the clerk directed to sign them on behalf of the meeting.

Adjourned to Four O'clock this afternoon

Friends met, agreeably to adjournment.

Essays of Epistles were produced by the Committee appointed for that purpose, which were read, corrected, and directed to be transcribed, signed on behalf of the meeting, and forwarded to those Yearly Meetings, to which they are respectively addressed.

The Committee appointed on the subject brought up from W Baltimore Quarter, produced the following report

By— To the Yearly Meeting now sitting.

The committee appointed to take into consideration the subject brought up from W Baltimore Quarter, respecting a difference of opinion, that had taken place between the two monthly meetings of W Baltimore, relative to the right in the property, in the eastern end of that City, having several times met, and given full opportunity for the Quarterly meetings committee, and those appointed by the two monthly meetings of W Baltimore, to explain the nature of the difference which exists between those meetings, and after examining such papers and documents, as they saw proper to lay before us, and giving friends an opportunity of communicating any verbal information, that they might think would tend to elucidate the business before us.— on a free communication of sentiment it was agreed to report, that we fully unite with the decision and explanation of the Yearly meeting in the years 1810 and 1811. in the case relative to the W Burying ground.— and that at the time the division of W Baltimore monthly meeting took place, or at any time since, no particular monthly meeting had, or could have, consistent with the original titles, any exclusive right in the property at the eastern end of the City, held by Friends.— but it appears owing to an application of the monthly meeting of W Baltimore for the Eastern District, to
