Who being called were present except seven, who were mostly prevented from attending by want of health.

Epistles written and general for the past and present year, from our brethren of the Yearly Meeting of London. And also Epistles from all the Yearly Meetings on this continent, except Rhode Island and Ohio, were received and read, the contents of which were acceptable and edifying. And that the very interesting counsel contained in the printed general Epistle from London of the present year may be diffused for more general usefulness it was concluded to have 1200 copies printed to be divided among our Quarters, Philip & Thomas and John Hewes were appointed to pay the necessary attention to the subject, and directed to call upon the Treasurer for the expence.

The following friends were appointed to prepare essays of Epistles, to those yearly meetings with which this corresponds, to be produced to a future sitting, viz. Thomas Moore, Gerard Hopkins, Israel Hewell, Asa Moore, Jonathan Jepsop, David Preston, Philip & Thomas, John M. Pherson, Joseph Townsend, James Mendenhall, George Ellicott and John S. Peck.

Certificates and minutes were produced by several brethren and Sisters, from neighbouring yearly meetings, William Kenworthy, Asa Moore, and William Riley, were appointed to unite with a committee of women friends to prepare essays of endorsements therefor to be produced to a future sitting.

The representatives were directed to confer together at the close of this sitting in order to choose and propose a clerk and assistant at the opening of the ensuing sitting.

Then adjourned to 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Friends assembled pursuant to adjournment.

James Mendenhall on behalf of the representatives reported that they had conferred together and agreed to propose Hugh Walderston as clerk and John Janney as assistant which was concurred with, and they were accordingly appointed.

Fairfax Quarterly Meeting stated in their report a difficulty in regard to the disposal of a lot of ground and meeting house now out of use, and proposed for the consideration of the
