Which being read and considered was concurred with and the following friends were accordingly appointed to the assistance of those meetings— viz— James Mendenhall, Roger Brooke, Joseph Thornburg, John Jewett, John Chew Thomas and Asa Moore, who were desired to report to the meeting next year. The Clerk was directed to furnish the two monthly meetings of Baltimore with a copy of the report, and of this minute. Then adjourned to 10 O'clock Tomorrow morning.

Twelfth of the month and fifth of the week, according to adjournment friends met.

The Committee appointed at last sitting produced the following report viz.

"To the Yearly Meeting now sitting;

Agreeably to appointment we have met and taken into solid consideration the very interesting subject of the education of children. After the fullest view we have been able to take, we are united in prospect that the time has come in which the meeting may make an effort for establishing an Institution for the education of our youth to be under the Superintendancy of the yearly meeting, we believe the earliest practicable commencement of such an Institution has, in relation to the benefit and welfare of our youth a strong claim upon the yearly meeting— which we submit to the meeting— Signed by direction and on behalf of the Committee by.

Gerard T. Hopkins
